2. How can I participate in the draw to win an extra entries for the TV draw if I live far from Loto-Québec's casinos, gaming halls and kiosks?

Go to lotoquebec.com/2chance and follow the instructions to enter with your numéro de contrôle OR scan the code d'inscription via our Lotteries app.

Only Québec residents who are physically located in Québec who are at least 18 years of age may register online. The prize must be accepted "as is." Other conditions apply.

3. How will I know if I've won an extra entry for the TV draw through the Promotion?

Winners will be contacted by phone on the evening of January 3, 2024. If there is no answer, Loto-Québec customer service representatives will contact the winners within 36 hours of the draw. In the days following the draw, the names of the five winners will be displayed in the Winners section of the 2nd Chance site.

4. In the event that a winner of extra entries cannot be reached, will another entry be drawn?

No. If the selected entrant cannot be reached within 36 hours of the draw, but otherwise meets all Claim Conditions, they'll be able to claim a $1,000 prize and the minimum $25,000 prize.

5. Are the five extra entries for the TV draw deducted from the prize structure?

Absolutely not. These are additional entries. A total of 50 entries will be available.

6. Can customers from other provinces participate in Célébration?

Yes. However, Célébration 2024 tickets, which cost $25, will be sold exclusively in Québec. Consumers may purchase a ticket from any of the 8,000 retailers across the province.

7. Can Célébration ticket holders from other provinces also participate in the Extra entries for the TV draw Promotion?

No.

Persons from outside Québec cannot register online. Only Québec residents who are physically located in Québec at the time of registration can register online.

8. Is the draw for additional entries to the TV draw on January 3, 2024 open to the public?

No.

9. Will the draw for extra entries for the TV draw be broadcasted?

No. The draw to select the five winners of extra entries for the TV draw will be conducted by held electronically and will therefore not be taped.

10. If I know that I'll be away and/or unreachable at the time of the draw, can I name a proxy?

No. If the selected entrant cannot be reached within 36 hours of the draw, but otherwise meets all Claim Conditions, they'll be able to claim a $1,000 prize and the minimum $25,000 prize.

11. Will there be a show this year?

Yes, there'll be a Célébration 2024 gala. However, the event will not be open to the public.

Questions regarding Internet registration and the web entry form

12. Do I need to type the hyphens of the numéro de contrôle? Do I need to respect uppercase and lowercase letters?

It's your choice: you may include the hyphens in the numéro de contrôle if you wish and may be entered in upper or lowercase.

13. What should I do if my computer does not seem to work on the registration page?

Your computer's operating system or your web browser may be the problem. Our site is designed to support all standard web browsers. Please consult the following pages as needed:
lotoquebec.com/loteries/nav/en/technical-help

Still having problems? Note the version of your browser and operating system, or take a screen shot of any message displayed on your computer screen.

Then, contact Loto-Québec's customer service toll free at 1-866-611-LOTO (5686) or write to service_clientele@loto-quebec.com.

14. How do I enter the promotion from my phone?

First, you'll need to download Loto-Québec's Lotteries app (<https://loteries.lotoquebec.com/en/useful-information/mobile-app>). Next, open the app and tap the Scan tab. Point your phone so that the code de vérification from your draw entry form is centred in the window. A small cross should appear in the middle of the screen to guide you.

15. Can I enter the promotion via my Espacejeux account?

Absolutely. Only customers who do not have an account will need to open one to enter the promotion.

16. Do I need to fill out the account registration form at lotoquebec.com every time I register a new Célébration ticket?

No, not at all. You need to open an account only once (if you don't already have one) and log in with your email and password to register all your Célébration tickets. As such, when you're registering new tickets, you only have to enter the numéro de contrôle from each ticket in the field provided.

17. How do I know that my ticket has been entered in the promotion?

You can see all the tickets that you entered via your account, on the 2nd Chance Entries page (https://2chance.espacejeux.com/?p=lqp21_participations). You can only access this page if you're logged in to your account.
